Eucharistic Adorers Needed! Have you thought about setting aside some time to spend with our Lord in adoration? We currently have several openings in our adoration schedule on Thursdays. If you would like to commit to a weekly hour of adoration in our chapel, the following times need another adorer: Midnight to 1:00 AM; 1:00-2:00 AM; 2:00-3:00 AM, 7:00-8:00 AM, 10:00-11:00 AM, 11:00 AM—Noon. We try to have two committed to each hour to simplify necessary absences. Of course you are welcome to spend time in adoration at any time, but if you feel called to fill one of these openings, please contact the church office.

Stewardship Definition Explained:

A Steward Shares

By: Fr. C. Jarrod Lies, S.T.L.

"If you lend money to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners and get back the same amount." (Luke 6:34)

What has been received must now be shared. Stewardship is to discipleship what exercise is to a gym membership. Membership alone does not mean one is exercising; so too being a disciple does not necessarily mean one is living as a steward. For this reason, stewardship can be called a "spirituality of sharing." Within this sharing, a double dignity is revealed. The one who gives acknowledges that he or she has something to offer, affirming personal dignity. The one who receives is recognized as worthy of sacrifice, affirming the dignity of the other. Furthermore, this sharing is to be offered without expectation of return, as Jesus teaches in the passage quoted above.
