Stewardship Definition Explained:

A Steward Loves God and Neighbor

By: Fr. C. Jarrod Lies, S.T.L.

"Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another" (1 John 4:11)

The wellspring of stewardship is this: "God is love" (1 John 4:8). The love in which stewardship is exercised is agape—self-sacrificial love. It imitates the self-emptying, self-donating love of Jesus, who loved us to the end (John 13:1). This love is not merely an example placed before us; it is a gift poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:5). Our response is twofold: we dwell in love, and we share that love. Such love becomes visible in prayer, hospitality. Thus John warns, "If someone who has worldly means sees a brother in need and refuses him compassion, how can the love of God remain in him?" (1John 3:17)
