Stewardship Definition Explained:

By: Fr. C. Jarrod Lies, S.T.L.

"You are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."
1 Cor. 12:27

The parish is the Body of Christ lived in a particular place. That changes how we understand giving. The parish is not a product, and parishioners are not customers. We do not simply take from the parish, and because we belong, we share. Stewardship moves us beyond "me and Jesus" or "me and the sacraments" into the life of the Church, where my gifts are given for the good of others and their gifts also help build me up in Christ..
